Leathernecks, Mariners Win Oregon Legion

PENDLETON, Ore., Aug. 13 -

The Oregon State American Legion competition was held here today. Two Seniors, 6 Juniors and 3 Junior Guards vied for State honors.

The Leathernecks won the Senior show with a score of 62.65, Pendleton took second with a score of 55.95. The Juniors placed as follows: Mariners, 62.20, Hawks, 61.60, Falmingos, 60.08, McLaren, 58.91, Baker, 45.10, and the Falcons, 38.80.

The judging was performed by the Washington State Chapter of All American Judges. The All American Judges were accompanied by judges from the newly formed Oregon State Judges Association. A bugle judge from the Washington Chapter was not available, but this problem was solved by Mr. Gale Rogers of San Francisco, who flew from Frisco to Pendleton (1,500 miles) at his own expense to do the job.

"OFF THE CUFF!" - A new corps will start from the Shamrock Camp this fall "B". Washington State Judges Association to hold clinics in Washington and Oregon this fall.
