

DCN
June 28, 1967

Dear Sir:

In the May 24 issue of DCN on Page 8 appeared a list titled "Champions of 1966." It stated that the Thunderbirds of Seattle were the Oregon State A.L. & V.F.W. Champions.

The T-Birds are WASHINGTON A.L. & V.F.W. State Champions. The Royal Lancers of Portland, Ore. are the OREGON State A.L. Champions.

With all the hard work and many hours it takes to become state champions, the author, Jay Tobin, should have done further research and given these corps credit where credit is due.

Sincerely,

John Masciocchi
