

ABERDEEN LASS TOPS TWIRLERS

Lovey Ward Keeps Junior Title

Senior Titlist Unopposed

Lovey Ward, 17-year-old Aberdeen majorette, successfully defended her title as junior champion baton twirler in state competition at the Memorial stadium Friday night. She competed against two other juniors.

Jack Morrison, Auburn champion snare drummer, also retained his crown. Bugle championship was won by Cecil Bannister of Bellingham, and Robert Allen, Auburn, kept his title as champion drum major.

Elaine Harris' title of senior champion majorette and national baton twirler was uncontested.

University post No. 11 of Seattle walked off with the state American Legion drum and bugle corps championship. Defending Auburn post No. 78, took second place, while Albert J. Hamilton post No. 7 of Bellingham, placed third.

American Legionnaires of the Washington department yesterday at the concluding session of their convention here awarded trophies to the following posts for outstanding community services:

Americanism—University post 11 of Seattle, Citation to Carnation post.

Employment—University post 11 of Seattle, first, Citation to Bremerton.

Traffic safety—Centralia post 17, first, Port Angeles No. 29, second.

Rehabilitation—Port Angeles post 29, first; Oganogan post 56, second.

Seascouts—Edmunds post No. 66.

Publicity—Bellingham post No. 7, first; Yakima post 36, second.

More than 2500 delegates from the state of Washington attended the convention.

ENDS FURLOUGH

Pfc. Robert D. Fetterly has returned to Fort Hood, Texas, after spending a two-week furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Fetterly, N639 Hogan. Private Fetterly is attached to company B of the First armored division.

August 26, 1951

The Spokesman-Review (Spokane, WA)

Washington State

American Legion Championships