

...general hospital in Vancouver, Wash., adding 500 beds for mental patients at American Lake Veterans' Hospital, and urged establishment of a national cemetery in the state.

The Legion recommended that minimum requirements be raised for applicants for farm units in the Columbia Basin Project.

In drum and bugle corps competition Friday night, West Seattle Post No. 160 was first, Seattle's University Post No. 11 second and Auburn Post No. 78 third. West Seattle's auxiliary drill team also won first in that division, with Everett Auxiliary No. 6 second and Wenatchee Auxiliary No. 10 third.

The Legion's national commander told convention delegates Friday that stable peace will come only after death of capitalism or communism.

August 13, 1955
Seattle AL Competition