

Legion Unit Wins Prize

TACOMA (AP) — Drummers and buglers of Auburn American Legion Post No. 78 beat, blew and paraded their way to a state championship here Friday night.

They won the drum and bugle corps competition against units from throughout Washington in a major event of the American Legion state convention here.

Wenatchee Post No. 10 was second, and Everett's Earl Faulkner Post No. 6, third.

Eugene Oatis of Tacoma, state chairman of the drum and bugle corps contests, also announced these winners:

Jean Kelly, Earl Faulkner Post, Everett, junior division champion drum majorette.

Herb Johns, Wenatchee Post No. 10, and Winton Weyer, Albert J. Hamilton Post No. 7, Bellingham, tie for bass drum championship.

Wenatchee Post No. 10 won auxiliary drill team competition.

August 2, 1958

Daily Chronicle (Centralia, WA)

Washington State

American Legion Championship