

Drumkhana Led By Wash. Units

MILWAUKIE, Ore. (AP) — Two Seattle drum and bugle teams dominated the annual Drumkhana Drum and Bugle Corps contest Sunday at Putnam High School in Milwaukie.

The contest was part of the Portland Rose Festival.

The Imperials, a Japanese group sponsored by a Seattle American Legion post, won the junior B division.

The Shamrocks, defending junior A champions from Seattle, marched to another title.

Placing second and third in the junior A division were the Royal Lancers of Portland and the Hawks of Oregon, another Portland corps.

The Flamingoes of Salem and the Imperial Cadets of Portland placed second and third in the B division.
