

Flamingos bring back top honors

The Flamingo Drum and Bugle Corps of Oregon and its Escadrille Cadet Corps brought home several top honors from a drum and bugle corps competition and parade in Bremerton, Wash., Saturday.

The Flamingo A Corps placed fourth in the parade and second in the drill competition. It also took the high bugle award for the performance.

The Escadrille Corps took first place in the C division competition. The performance was the Escadrille unit's third competitive performance. They placed second in their first two competitions.
