

Percussion Pageant Set in Falls

Eleven of the West's top Junior Drum and Bugle Corps will perform at the first "Pageant of Percussion" in Great Falls July 22, Del Thurber announced.

Thurber is chairman of the pageant and director of the local junior drum and bugle corps, the Golden Skyliners. The show is set for 7:30 p.m. in the Legion Baseball Park, River Road and Twenty-fifth Street.

Corps taking part will be: Titans, Bremerton, Wash.; Knight Raiders, Sunnyvale, Calif.; Velvet Knights, Santa Ana, Calif.; Hawks and Royal Lancers, both from Portland, Ore.; Shamrocks, Seattle, Wash.; Sentinels, Bellevue, Wash.; Sunsetters, Astoria, Ore.; Oregon Crusaders, West Lynn, Ore.; Red and White Aires, Calgary, Alta., and the Golden Skyliners.

Each corps has approximately 100 members between the ages of 11 and 21, Thurber said. Most of these young people will arrive the morning of the pageant. They will be housed in gymnasiums, churches and public halls throughout the city, he added.
