

Spokane drum corps best

Spokane's Renaissance Drum and Bugle Corps won first place honors Friday night at the Titan's Invitational, a contest for drum and bugle corps groups in Bremerton, Wash., Keryl Godsey, public relations manager for the Spokane corps, said.

The Spokane corps competed against 10 other corps from as far away as California and Colorado, she said.

About 60 men and women between the ages of 14 and 21, from the Spokane area, comprise the group, she said.

"It's a major feat to come out on top with only half the number of persons we should have," she said. Most of the corps the Spokane group competed against consisted of about 120 members, she added.

The Spokane corps will receive a trophy and a cash award, according to Godsey.

August 29, 1976
Spokesman-Review
Bremerton Titans Show