

Youth Wins Corps Test

Larry Graves, who plays the contra bass, was the only local winner in the annual winter drum and bugle corps competition held Saturday in the Salem Armory-Auditorium.

Larry is a member of the Flamingoes of Salem.

The Shamrocks of Seattle won the "A" Corps competition and the Hawks of Portland were first among "B" Corps.

The best color guards were the Cascades of Seattle. The Hawks won the Capital City Printers sportsmanship trophy.

Winners in individual drum competition were: tenor, Doug Daquist of the Lancers; drum quartet, Imperial Cadets; base, Don Worth of Imperial Cadets; cymbals, Allen Plumb of Lancers; Timbales, Steve Crivillon of Imperial Cadets; snare, Steve Chorrar, The Hawks.

Bugles: French horn, Larry Johnson of Cascades; base baritone, Dave Minear of Shamrocks; mellophone, Rick Andrews of Sentinels; soprano, Frank Minear of Shamrocks; quartet, Hawks; ensemble, Sentinels.

Rifles: solo, Linda Engle of Thunderbirds; duet, Hawks; quartet, Cascades.

Drum major: Sylvia Blair, Cascades.

January 27, 1969
Salem Optirama