

Flamingos Take First

Salem's Flamingo Drum & Bugle Corps color guard was named the best in the Northwest in competition Sunday at Lynwood, Wash.

Flamingo units won top honors in both A and B divisions, and also took the 1970 cumulative Northwest championship in competition with seven other color guard units.

The Flamingos' third unit, the Flamingo Chicks, finished second in B division. Second in A division was awarded to the Cascades of Seattle.

Becky Franko was named the 1970 champion Northwest color guard commander for her performance as leader of the Flamingo A color guard.

August 24, 1970
Thunderbirds CG Show