

Legion Sets Drum, Bugle Competition

PORTLAND—Groups of from 70 to 100 young people from about 30 cities around the nation have announced plans to be in Portland during the American Legion convention — at the Legion's request.

The youths are members of drum and bugle corps who will compete for the American Legion National Junior Championship.

The Salem Flamingos will compete, starting Friday night with the 1970 Invitational West Coast Championship sponsored by the Royal Lancers Drum & Bugle Corps of Portland.

Seven West Coast corps will perform at the invitational meet to be held at the Milwaukie High School stadium at 7:30 p.m. Each group will take the field for 13 minutes while 14 judges watch for missteps and musical mishaps.

August 27, 1970
Statesman Journal
Oregon