

Flamingos 2nd In State Meet

SEASIDE — Portland's Royal Lancers were judged best overall and Salem Flamingos were awarded second at the American Legion sponsored drum and bugle corps statewide competition held here over the weekend.

The competition was witnessed by more than 2,000 people at Brockway Junior High stadium. Five teams competed.

THIRD PLACE OVERALL went to Pendleton Rangers; fourth to Flamingo Escadrille (junior group) and fifth to Yamhill County Challengers of Sheridan.

The Flamingos took first in marching and maneuvering and for color guard.

Individual firsts among Flamingo Corps members went to: Jill Graves and Mary Thompson, flag duet, A division; Cheryl and Jenny Rankin, Nancy Heimerdinger and Karen Karn, flag quartet; Kay Peterson, sabre solo, B division; Barbara Peek, rifle solo, A division; Barbara Peek and Teri

Boyd, rifle duet, A division; Nancy Gardner and Cindy Columbus, rifle duet, B division; Barbara Peek, Teri Boyd, Cheryl Belleisle and Dena Ferrell, rifle quartet.

REX URBAN won the state trophy for highest individual score in bugling and also took first for soprano bugle solo, A division. Other instrumental firsts won by Flamingo members went to Randy Graves, french horn solo, A division; Chris Schirle, mello horn solo, A division; Jim Trembl, soprano bugle solo, B division; Ken Hargis, bass baritone solo, A division, and Brian Hudgins, bass baritone solo, B division. All are from Salem.

Bob Clausen of Monmouth took first for bass baritone solo, B division.

Salem residents winning in the drum competition were Sheryl Windsor, first, snare drum solo, A division; Bob Johnson, first, bass drum solo; Bill Bowles and Mark Pruitt, first, as part of a drum quartet.