

Drum Show to Draw Corps to WV Site

Drum and bugle corps from throughout the state will compete in the annual Pageant of Drums sponsored by the Department of Washington of the Veterans of Foreign Wars June 21 on the West Valley High School playing field.

Mrs. Ruth L. Eldred, state news chairman, said today Spokane's Percussion-Naut Patriots will be defending their state championship at the meet which is being held in conjunction with the state VFW convention scheduled next week at the Ridpath Hotel and Motor Inn.

Competing with the 117-member Percussion-Nauts will be the Titans Drum and Bugle Corps of Silverdale, Wash.; the Cascades Drum and Bugle Corps and the Shamrocks Junior Drum and Bugle Corps, both from Seattle, and the Black Watch Drum and Bugle Corps, sponsored by White River Valley VFW Post 1741.

The Inland Empire Angus Scott Pipe Band and Highland Lancers will perform during the contest.
