

Seattle Team Wins Drum, Bugle Event

The Thunderbirds, Seattle, dominated the northwest drum and bugle corps competition sponsored by the Salem Optimist Club in the Armory-Auditorium Saturday.

The Thunderbirds picked up two first places in corps competition and five firsts in individual and group competition.

Other corps entered included La Sabers, Salem; the Flamingos, Salem; the Mariners, Astoria; the Hurricanes, Seattle; the Hawks, Portland, the British Columbia Regiment, Vancouver, B. C.; the Shamrocks, Seattle; the Rangers, Pendleton; The Rose-Anna Drum Corps, Portland, and the Thunderbird Cadets, Seattle.

Winners, in order of place, were:

Color Guard: Thunderbirds, Thunderbird Cadets, Flamingos, Mariners, La Sabers.

Compact Corps, senior: Hurricanes.

Compact Corps, juniors: Flamingos, Mariners.

Stand Still, senior: British Columbia Regiment, Leathernecks.

Stand Still, junior: Thunderbirds, Hawks, Flamingos, Mariners, Thunderbird Cadets.

Sportsmanship Award: Flamingos.

Bass Drum, junior: Jerry Rantz, Thunderbirds; Billy Avery, Thunderbird Cadets; Don Davies, Shamrocks.

Bugle Quartet, junior: Thunderbirds, Shamrocks, Thunderbirds.

Snare Drum, junior: Roger Allen, Rangers; Ron Caffiere, Thunderbird Cadets; Chuck Waples, Hawks.

Cymbals, junior: Jim Pond, Shamrocks.

Tenor Drum, junior: Doug Barduhn, Bert Robitaille, both Thunderbirds; Craig Carlson, Shamrocks.

French Horn, junior: Tom Grinolds, Clary Holden, both Thunderbirds; A. J. Berenato, Shamrocks.

Bugle Quartet, senior: Hurricanes. Drum Quartet, junior: Shamrocks, Rangers, Rose-Anna Drum Corps.

Bass Baritone, senior: Jack Avery, Fred Lopez, both Hurricanes.

Baritone Bugle, junior: Steve Thompson, Shamrocks; Charles Eastland, Mariners; Paul Dubeck, Shamrocks.

Soprano Bugle, junior: Tim Grobert, Hawks; Frank Minear, Dave George, Ralph Hogan, all Thunderbirds.

Bass Baritone, junior: Craig Salin, Thunderbirds; Bert Barton, Shamrocks; Larry Salinger, Thunderbirds.

January 18, 1965
Capital Journal