

Local guards share honors

Color guards from Seattle and British Columbia dominated competition Saturday at the Optirama meet, held in the Salem Armory.

However, units from Salem's Sprague High claimed first and third in the high school division and Salem's Argonaut unit placed second in the A division.

Results were as follows.

High School Division: Sprague Orange, 1st; Sunset of Portland, 2nd; Sprague Gold, 3rd; Centennial of Portland, 4th; and Pasco, Wash., 5th.

B Division: Pacific Blue Beavers of Surrey, B.C., 1st; Pacific Blue No. 2 of Surrey, B.C., 2nd.

A Division: Pacific Blue No. 1 of Surrey, B.C., 1st; Argonauts, 2nd; Pacificaires No. 2 of Surrey, B.C., 3rd; Imperials of Seattle, 4th.

Open Division: Buddhist Church of Seattle, 1st; Cascades of Seattle, 2nd; Black Watch of Seattle, 3rd; Pacificaires No. 1 of Surrey, B.C., 4th.

March 20, 1983
Statesman Journal

THE LAST OPTIRAMA