

Portland, Seattle Corps Head Drum, Bugle List

Entries from Portland and the Seattle area took the lion's share of honors in the daylong Northwest Regional Drum & Bugle Corps Competition which ended late Saturday night at Salem Armory - Auditorium.

Flamingos of Salem took first in one category — A division of the color guard competition — and finished second in B division of drum and bugle competition.

Winners in drum and bugle were the Shamrocks of Seattle, A division; Sentinels, Bellevue, Wash., B division; and Sunsetters of Astoria, C division. The Hawks of Portland captured honors in B division of color guard.

The annual event, called Opti-Rama, was sponsored by the Breakfast Optimist Club of Salem.

Winners in individual competition were:

Soprano bugle, Jeff Million, Hawks.

French horn, Larry Johnson, Cascades, Seattle.

Mellophone, Dave Pyle, Imperial Cadets, Portland.

Baritone, Tom Chorazy, Rangers, Pendleton.

Contra bass, Larry Graves, Flamingos.

Snare drum, Bob Kalkofen, Troopers, Casper, Wyo.

Tenor drum, Mark Ivester, Percussion Nauts, Spokane, Wash.
